

RAILROAD DEPARTMENT

WORK IS BEING PUSHED ON SIERRA

President Nickerson Tells New Yorkers All About His Line.

New York, Sept. 2.—President H. R. Nickerson, of the Sierra Madre & Pacific railroad, is spending a month here in the interests of his road. Mr. Nickerson is personally interesting a number of New York bankers in the extensions of the Sierra Madre line.

When interviewed Mr. Nickerson stated: "There are few railroads in Mexico that can compare in mineral, timber, and agricultural resources with the Sierra Madre. The road has been completed from El Paso to Casas Grandes and active construction has been started on the connecting link between the latter place and Santo Tomas, a station on the Chihuahua & Pacific. At Nallurachic Pass, 10 miles north of Santo Tomas, a branch line has been built connecting the main line with the Chihuahua & Pacific, Temohachic and other camps of the lumber belt.

"Shipments of lumber are now being made over this branch from Matamoros to Temohachic, where connection is made with the Chihuahua & Pacific.

Pushing Work.

"From Tomas south it is proposed to build the line to a point near El Trico, where the line will branch one running to Tapobampo and the other to Guaymas, both are ports on the Pacific coast, and have excellent harbors.

"South of Casas Grandes the road runs through one of the richest agricultural districts in the country. Around Casas Grandes are located a number of Mormon colonies. The road runs through the largest pine forest on the continent. It will tap Conchocho, Navidad and other famous mining districts of Chihuahua.

"At El Paso connections are made with the Santa Fe, and on the Pacific we will have two deep water ports. The Sierra Madre runs through a country whose future development is unlimited and whose possibilities have only been touched.

"The position which the Mexican government lately took in regard to the Central American troubles, and her influence in maintaining peace among her turbulent neighbors has done much to restore the false impression in the east that Mexico is 'revolutionary and unstable.' The past year has witnessed a large investment of New York capital in Mexican mines, and the banks are beginning to realize the possibilities of railroad development in Mexico."

"GILA MONSTER" ROAD AFRAID OF WATER.

The Gila monster may be able to stand a little water, but it is more at home on the arid desert, and that is probably the reason why the railroad in Arizona, known as the "Gila Monster," is suffering so much from the recent rains.

The management of the Gila Valley, Globe & Northern has issued a bulletin stating that it must refuse to accept either freight or passengers for the next six or eight days at least.

The G. V. G. & N. is a Southern Pacific feeder, and its 124 miles of track extend from Bowie on the Tucson division to Globe, Ariz. Rains on its mountain curves have caused serious troubles, and washouts are frequent and troublesome in occurrence.

The recent rains that have been troubling the other roads of the southwest have evidently reached out in Arizona to the G. V. G. & N., for a complete tie-up of the road for eight days means that a great part of its freightage has been swept away in the mountain torrents.

TRACKWALKER SAVED A PASSENGER TRAIN.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 2.—"If it hadn't been for the trackwalkers this side of Vinton, No. 10 might have had a bad week the other night," said a Santa Fe trainman, who came in on No. 9 Saturday, several hours late.

"The trackwalkers discovered that had without near Vinton and a man was sent down the road to flag No. 10 on which I was working. When less than a mile from the washout he heard the train coming and by desperate signals and his lantern, succeeded in getting the engineer to stop.

"The engineer had to put on the brakes so suddenly that the passengers were badly shaken up and some of them fell out into the ditches. Had the train gone twenty feet further it would have run into the first small gap in the track caused by the rising river, and it had to be backed for considerable distance to keep it from sinking into the softened ground."

WRECKED MOUNTAIN ENGINE IN SHOPS.

El Paso, Tex., Sept. 2.—Engine No. 184, of the Alamogordo & Sacramento Mountain railway, that was overturned while coming down the mountain from Cloudercroft light, killing Engineer Welby, has been brought here and placed in the southwestern back shops for rebuilding. The engine was completely stripped by the fall and the cab, steam and sand domes torn from it. At the place where it left the track the right-of-way is unusually rough and as the mountain climber was going at a high rate of speed when it was derailed, almost all of the upper works was torn off. It will be given a general overhauling in the shops and will be again put back in commission on the mountain division.

NINE HOUR DAY IS GRANTED MACHINISTS.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 2.—Through an agreement which becomes effective tomorrow all the machinists, boiler-makers and other mechanics in the shops of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul railroad are granted a nine-hour workday. The order affects about 1500 skilled workmen. The management of the Great Northern and the Northern Pacific railroads also conceded the machinists a nine-hour workday and a wage increase of 3 1/2 cents an hour, making the new scale 40 cents an hour on the eastern end of the roads and 42 cents on the Pacific coast.

Negotiations are now pending between the machinists and the management of all the railroads in the northwest for the nine-hour workday.

ROCK ISLAND OFFICIAL DIES ON PASSENGER TRAIN.

City of Mexico, Sept. 2.—W. H. Ford, general freight and passenger agent of the Rock Island railroad, for northern Mexico, with headquarters in Torreon, died in his berth on a Pullman car near Reata, at about 2 o'clock Wednesday morning.

Mr. Ford became quite ill two or three days before and was confined to his bed at the Hotel Salvador. He was suffering with general peritonitis which followed a severe hemorrhage of the stomach, causing congestion of that organ. Mr. Ford was advised to go to a lower altitude as quickly as possible, as his heart showed a weak action. Accordingly he took the train Tuesday night for Monterey, intending to enter some hospital there the following morning.

FRISCO PAYS HEAVY FEE FOR FILING PAPERS.

Jefferson City, Mo., Sept. 2.—E. H. Abbott, of the tax department of the St. Louis and San Francisco railroad, today filed in the office of the secretary of state articles showing an increase in the capitalization from $100,000,000 to $200,000,000. The fee which was paid to the state was $50,000, the largest, it is said, ever realized by the state from a single transaction of this character. It will bring to the state something over $4 per day in interest. The treasury, apprised of Mr. Abbott's coming, was held open nearly three hours after the regular closing hour to receive this fee, and it begins bearing interest from this date.

In response to a request from the officers of the territory fair association, the Santa Fe railway company will pay on the 10th of October instead of the 16th as is usual. The American Lumber company has been requested to do likewise, and it is expected they will respond also. The fair association is spending $20,000 on the fair and is pulling every string possible to get even.

A. W. Anson, the Albuquerque contractor, has been awarded the contract for the new storehouses to be built at the local shops. The work of construction will begin upon the arrival of the material.

CORONER'S JURY IN POVERTY NOW SAD CURRY WAS DEAD WEALTHY

Exchange of Clothing Accounted For Mistake Concerning Present Governor.

Trinidad, Colo., Sept. 2.—That George Curry, territorial governor of New Mexico, was once officially declared dead by a coroner's jury of Las Animas county, is an interesting bit of history that has just come to light through exchange of letters between Town Marshal George W. Tisworth, of Segundo, and the new governor of Colorado.

Early in the eighties, Mr. Tisworth was a justice of the peace and was called upon to hold an inquest over the body of an unknown man found on the plains thirty miles east of this city. A jury of cowpunchers was summoned and an investigation was held. Cards in the pockets of a vest on the remains caused the jury to return a verdict that "George Curry" came to his death from sunstroke. Some baggage checks were also found bearing the name of the Trinidad hotel. Several weeks later Mr. Tisworth, being in Trinidad, inquired of the clerk of the Trinidad hotel, placed the proceedings of the inquest before the hotel clerk and asked him if he knew anything of the man. As the clerk glanced over the record a look of surprise deepened on his face and finally he ejaculated, "That's me! I am George Curry." In view of the startling statement it was decided to exhume the body and hold another inquest. A Mr. Frankel was then county coroner and a further investigation revealed that the dead man was John Lynn, of Cleveland.

What Caused It.

At the time, Mr. Curry explained that he was living in Raton at the time of the man's death and had come over to Trinidad to play baseball. He and Lynn had roomed together at the hotel and in the morning the eastern man had carried off Curry's waistcoat by mistake. During the interim between the first inquest and the discovery of the mistake in the name, Mr. Curry had accepted a position as clerk in the local hotel.

The following letters are self explanatory:

"Segundo, Colo., Aug. 21,

"Hon. George Curry, Gov. Territory of New Mexico.

"Dear Sir:—Back in the eighties I held an inquest over a corpse supposed to have been one George Curry. In pocket of coat found on the corpse were letters of recommendation also papers showing honorable discharge from the United States service. This happened in Las Animas county, Colorado, east of Trinidad, about 30 miles. We found out that the name of the victim was John Lynn, from Cleveland, Ohio. Death caused by sunstroke.

"I am writing to ask if you are the George Curry you have reference to. If you are the man, allow me to congratulate you upon becoming governor of two territories since this inquest was held.

"It seems that the report of your death, if you were the man, was 'greatly exaggerated.'

"I had learned since that George Curry had been killed in some manner.

"If you can spare the time it would be a great favor if you will answer this letter at your earliest convenience, obliging.

"Yours very truly,

"GEO. W. TISWORTH, Marshal."

Governor Writes of Occurrence.

"Department of the Interior, Territory of New Mexico, Office of the Executive.

"Santa Fe, Aug. 24, 1907.

"Dear Sir:—The corpse you refer to was undoubtedly supposed to be myself, as at that time I lived in Raton and went to Trinidad to play baseball. My recollection is that a man named Lynn and myself occupied the same room, and that when we got up the next morning he put on my vest, which contained some letters in its inside pocket. Therefore I had the pleasure of reading an account of my own death after my return home. An incident of this nature happened in the Philippines when I was governor of one of the provinces there. While in a fight I became cut off from my men and was missing for several days, and it was reported that I had been killed, but turned up all right.

"Will be pleased to hear from you at any time, and with kind regards, I remain,

"Respectfully yours,

"GEORGE CURRY.

"George W. Tisworth, Esq., Segundo, Colorado."

THIEF ATTEMPTS TO MURDER FAMILY

New York, Sept. 2.—A murderous thief crept into the house of Charles Verrill, an attendant of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, who lives at 255 East Eighty-third street, with his wife and five children, at 3 o'clock this morning, and tried to take the entire family by turning on the gas jets in the kitchen range.

Mrs. Verrill's six-month-old baby cried, and the lives of all were saved, as the mother was aroused and attended to the infant and discovered the opened jets.

When she had again retired the thief once more turned on the gas, and again the wife and mother detected it, whereupon she aroused her husband.

Tucson, Ariz., Sept. 2.—For the past five years, within a stone's throw of Stone avenue, a woman by the name of Jade Walker has been living in abject poverty, all this time realizing, as she claims, that she is the only heir of a man who, upon his death bed, willed her a half interest in an estate valued at almost a million dollars.

John D. Walker, the only millionaire in Arizona in the early '90s, is alleged to have been the woman's father, and when he died 13 years ago in his home in San Francisco a conservative attorney placed the value of his estate at about $900,000.

Jade Walker, the woman living in this city, is a half-breed Cherokee Indian, her mother, Walker's wife, being a full-blooded member of this tribe. John D. Walker was the owner of the Vekol silver mine, located thirty-eight miles southwest of Casa Grande, in Pinal county, which was owned by a few days ago for $250,000 to a party of Alabama capitalists.

Hearing of the sale of this mine, Miss Walker at once decided to take steps to secure her share of the money, and beyond doubt, within the next few weeks, a suit will be filed in the district court here to restra the Dagg brothers of Phoenix, who hold a mortgage on the stock of the mine, from transferring the property to the southern men.

Head of Her Rides.

A reporter this afternoon called upon Miss Walker at her home located near the Southern Pacific freight depot, and questioned her regarding the probability of a suit being brought.

"The first I ever knew of the sale of the Vekol mine was when I read that a party of southerners had made a partial payment of $10,000 to A. J. and J. S. Dagg of Phoenix for the property. I, myself, am in very straitened circumstances, but have friends in this city who will advance me the money to make the legal fight, which I am making rightfully mine," she said to the reporter.

"My father died thirteen years ago in San Francisco and I have been informed by people who know beyond a doubt, that shortly before he passed away he made a will leaving one-half of his entire estate to me. It is my candid opinion, which I do not hesitate in expressing publicly, that father's deathbed, destroyed the will, and set in a claim, together with another uncle, William Walker, for my father's estate.

Will Destroyed.

"I had no money at that time to contest their claim, and although there was some trouble over the settlement of the estate, I never received a cent. My uncle, whom I believe to have destroyed the will, has been dead for some years and on his death he left me nothing.

"I made a fair and just settlement with me. The effort on his part to make the reparation due me, however, was soon put an end to by the death of the family. My other uncle, William Walker, who is at present living in California, has taken over the estate and under his control it is gradually lessening. There still remains the Vekol mine, however, which is rightfully mine, and if nothing prevents, I intend to take the matter to court in an endeavor to secure my rightful share of what remains of my father's one time vast estate."

The Vekol at one time was numbered among the world's greatest silver mines, and it is estimated that over a million dollars has been taken from it. There are over twenty miles of underground workings in the mine. After the mine was turned over to John D. Walker's brothers a considerable sum of money was loaned on it by the Dagg brothers of Phoenix, and they finally, in default of payment, took possession of the mine.

SEPTEMBER WILL BE A STORMY MONTH

St. Louis, Sept. 2.—Irl B. Hicks, the famous weather prophet, says that September will be stormy, that storms will sweep progressively over the country from the 1st to the 7th, and that seismic shocks will be felt in many places within 48 hours of noon of the 7th. The second storm period, he says, will be central on the 9th, 10th and 11th. Severe storms are to be expected from the 14th to the 19th, and another storm period is predicted Sept. 20-22. The fifth storm period will be central on the 27th to the 29th.

Are You Sure Your Kidneys are Well?

Many rheumatic attacks are due to uric acid in the blood. But the duty of the kidneys is to remove all uric acid from the blood. Its presence there shows the kidneys are inactive. Don't dally with "uric acid solvents." You might go on till doomsday with them, but until you cure the kidneys you will never get well. Doan's Kidney Pills not only remove uric acid, but cure the kidneys and then all danger from uric acid is ended.

Anselmo Armijo, living at 124 Cerillos street, Santa Fe, N. M., says: "For several years my wife suffered a great deal from backache, pain in the back of her head and rheumatism. Medicines that she used proved of little or no avail until she commenced with Doan's Kidney Pills, which she had the good fortune to learn of and prepared a box at Ireland's Pharmacy. The genuineness of this medicine as a cure for the kidneys was amply proven in her case. After using five boxes she was a well woman and has enjoyed good health ever since. I make this statement unhesitatingly and am prompted to do so that I may show my appreciation of this remedy. Doan's Kidney Pills."

S.S.S. HEALS OLD SORES

An old sore or ulcer is only a symptom, an outlet for the impurities and poisons which are in the blood, and as long as this vital fluid remains in this impure, contaminated state the place will never heal. The application of salves, washes, powders, etc., may cause the spot to scab over, but a fresh outpouring of diseased matter from the blood starts it again, and thus it goes on, gradually growing worse and slowly affecting the entire health of the sufferer. There are many ways in which the blood becomes contaminated and poisoned. A long spell of sickness breeds disease germs in the system, the failure of the eliminative members to remove the refuse and waste matter of the body, the excessive use of mineral medicines in certain diseases, all infect the blood with morbid matter and germs which sooner or later is manifested by a sore that refuses to heal. Persons with inherited blood taint are during young, vigorous life, but when middle age is reached or passed and the natural energies begin to grow weaker, the tissues in some weak point break down and a chronic sore is formed, kept open by the constant drainage of impure matter from the blood. If the cause is not removed the sore will continue to grow worse by eating deeper into the flesh, festering, discharging, and slowly undermining the constitution. S. S. S. heals old sores by going down to the very bottom of the trouble, driving out the impurities and building up the entire circulation. When S. S. S. has removed the cause the blood becomes rich and healthy, the sore begins to heal, new flesh is formed, and soon the place is cured. Do not depend on external applications, which do not reach the blood, but begin the use of S. S. S. and remove of the cause, and then the sore must heal.
